Snow Emergency Declaration Lifted: Resident Update #5

The Snow Emergency declared on Tuesday, March 14, 2017, at 12:01 a.m., has been canceled this morning at 7:00 a.m.

While the Snow Emergency has been canceled, residents are encouraged to take extra precautions to be safe when traveling today, as ice and snow hazards are still present in the community and surrounding areas.

The SNOW Hotline, 914-722-1150, will reopen at 9:00 a.m. this morning, and residents may call that number to notify staff of any non-emergency snow or ice-related concerns.
